

MERE MAIDS PUT JOY INTO THE SAD SEA WAVES

Newport Society Women Plan Benefit for Families of French Soldiers.

Newport, R. I., June 26.—Mrs. Whitney Warren, Mrs. Hamilton Fish Webster and Miss Maude K. Wetmore have started a movement for a benefit for the families of Frenchmen who left this country to go to war. July 24, the day of the benefit, will be Secours National Day. There will be several entertainments arranged so that they will not clash or interfere with one another.

As the plan now stands there will be an entertainment at the Casino, perhaps a tableau, in which some of the women of the summer colony will pose. A performance in one of the theatres, events at the beach, Bailey's and Hazards, and the sale of flowers are included in the programme.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Jay, Mrs. William W. Tompkins, Miss Martha Codman, Mrs. J. Fred Pierson, Mrs. George D. Widener and her family, Mrs. Ogden Goelet, Mrs. Robert S. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. William Earl Dodge, Mrs. Samuel Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Havemeyer, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Barton Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Perin, Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cass Leidy are among recent arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Jeffrey, Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Reynal, Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Livingston, Miss Mary Van Buren Vanderpool, Mrs. Joseph H. Willard and daughters, Mrs. LeRoy King, Mr. and Mrs. Alwyn Hall, Dr. and Mrs. R. H. and V. Matison, Mrs. R. T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Davis, Egerton L. Winthrop, Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Abner, Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Warren, Miss Alice Keteltas, Mrs. Tompkins McIlvaine and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hague are occupying recent arrivals.

Mrs. Henry A. C. Taylor, Mrs. George Broome, Mrs. Stuart Duncan, Mrs. John R. Drexel, Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. John J. Wyse, Mrs. John J. Mason and Mrs. Lorillard Spencer, Jr., have been a few of those who have entertained at their homes. The opening of Hill Top Inn has also given an impetus to entertaining. The honor of opening the entertainment at the Inn fell to the Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff. Mrs. George Howard has rented the De Rham cottage, and other members of the national capital colony will include Mrs. E. H. G. Slater, Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody Eustis, Mrs. Robert S. McCormick, Mrs. George Lothrop Bradley, Mrs. Robert R. Hitt, Miss Helen Parker, Mrs. Lyman Tiffany, Mrs. Richard Townsend, Professor and Mrs. Charles N. Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Woodbury Blair, Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, Dr. and Mrs. William C. Rives, Miss Martha C. Codman, Mrs. Robert D. Evans, Mrs. Evans Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Gulick, Countess Gizecki, Mr. and Mrs. Huntington Wilson, Mrs. John Patterson, Mrs. William F. Draper and Colonel and Mrs. Charles L. McCauley.

Mrs. Robert I. Cammell, of Providence, will arrive at her home here next week, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Sturgis are expected the first of the month. Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Van Beuren are due at Sayfields Farms in Middletown before the end of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Goadby Loew are to be early July arrivals, and Edward J. Herwind is expected back from Italy about the middle of July. His estate, Mr. Elms, already being open. Mr. and Mrs. T. Shaw Safe have gone to their farm in East Greenwich, R. I., and their home is being occupied by Sir Arthur and Lady Herbert, who have arrived from New York.

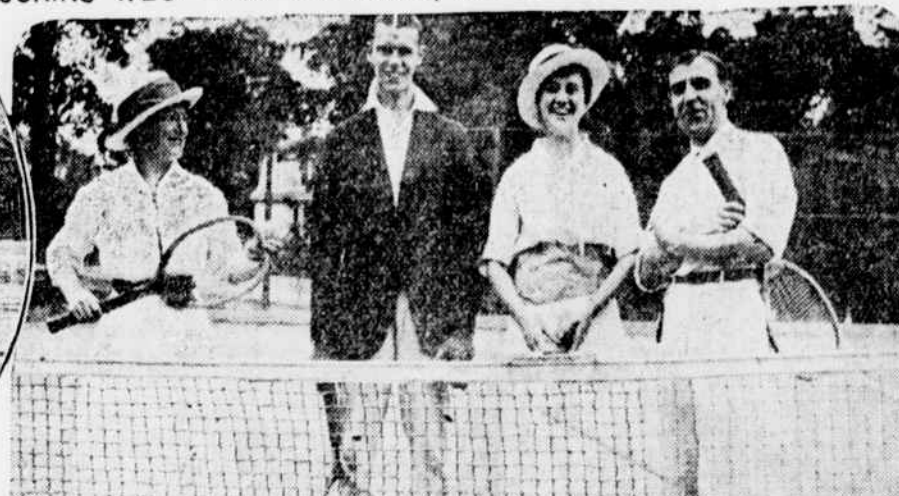

Mrs. I. Townsend Burden, who is at her home here, will soon be joined by her daughter, Miss Evelyn Burden.

Bar Harbor Turns To Social Calendar

Bar Harbor, Me., June 26.—Now that the cottage colony is practically settled, plans are being made for one of the gayest seasons that has been known in Bar Harbor for many years. July and August promise much in the way of entertainment. The social calendar at the Swimming Club in itself warrants a lively season, with daily dips in the pool, morning concerts, afternoon cabaret, tea, carnal nights, moving picture shows, tennis and aquatic sports. For those more seriously inclined there will be musical afternoons at the Building of Arts and open-air performances. An attraction for August will be "King René's Daughter," presented by Edith Wynne Matthison on the stage. At the Country Club there will be trap shooting and dinner dances. After the ancient game of archery will be revived, while the Kebo Valley Club offers golf and tennis.

Among the arrivals this week were J. M. Waterbury, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Gouverneur Morris, and her children, and an addition to the artistic and social colony this week was Mrs. Newell W. Tilton. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taft, of Cincinnati, have taken a cottage for the summer. Mr. Taft is the eldest son of ex-President Taft. Mrs. A. H. Martin and Mr. Eugene Gallatin, of New York, are here for the season. Herbert Pell, of Tuxedo Park, is here for the first time. Mrs. George Draper and her daughter, Miss Helen Draper, of Hopedale, Mass., are expected within the next few days.

W. A. F. Ekegren, Swedish Minister to the United States, and Mme. Ekegren arrived this week at their cottage. Constantin Brun, the Danish Minister, arrived at the Clover Cottage early in the season, and Count de Alite, the Portuguese Minister, reached here this week. Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Gurnee, of New York, are expected early in July. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred du Pont, of Wilmington, are expected at their cottage early next week. Their yacht Alicia will be moored here. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Reid, of New York, have leased Elsinore, owned by Mrs. Henry F. Dimock.

Mrs. Guy Fairfax Whiting and her daughters, Misses Alice and Julia, of Washington, are in their cottage for the season. Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Stewart and their children, of Philadelphia, arrived at the Shingle this week. Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Astor Wilks, of the new York, are here for the season. Mr. and Mrs. A. Murray Young, who motored from New York, are at Sonogee. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hennen Morris celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary at their cottage Saturday.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fabbi and Mr. and Mrs. William Jay Schieffelin.

Anchored here are Satilla, a steam yacht, owned by R. Hall McCormick; Elco, belonging to Robert H. McCormick; the gasoline yacht Content, recently bought by General Edward de V. Morrell, and the El Pacifica, chartered to Andrew Carnegie. The steam yacht Cherokee, owned by John S. Kennedy, is moored at Cromwell Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lauder, of New York, have leased one of the Vanderbilt cottages. Mrs. William Endicott, of Boston, will arrive at her cottage early next week.

The Spring House opens to-day. Many New York patrons are again at the Manillas for the early season. A banner season is expected if present indications are correct. The season at the Eureka Hotel has been a busy one for June. A large company of moving-picture players from the Edison Company are here, combining pleasure with hard work.

Several cottages that have not been open for years will be occupied this summer. Among these is the cottage owned by Judge Alexander Boardman of Georgia at Green Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Kehbeck, of New York City, have been at their bungalow, Overlook, since the first of May.

Miss Ethel Salisbury has opened her cottage at Crescent Beach. Daniel Murphy and his family are in their cottage, Innisfail, for the season. Henry Murphy, of New York City, will spend a part of the month of August with his parents.

George W. Elkins, of Elkins Park, Penn., Frank Pearson, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cheney, of South Manchester, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cheney, of Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Samuel W. Bone, Mrs. C. A. Bone, Miss Agnes Hoppin, Mrs. A. G. Well-

Automobile Tourists Travel Through Lenox, Pittsfield and Stockbridge in Record Numbers—Massachusetts Oils the Way.

Lenox, Mass., June 26.—Mountain laurel is now at its height of bloom and automobilists are coming in from all points to see the pink and white hillsides. Touring is the heaviest ever known in the region and continues with no sign of decrease. The Massachusetts State Highway Commission has oiled all its roads in Berkshire County and motorists can travel from every point in the locality on dustless roads.

Cortlandt F. Bishop began his long distance touring this week, making a run to Boston and return, 300 miles in ten hours. Next week he will try to go to New York and back in a day.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall Walker, in Great Barrington, began their series of entertainments, concerts and dances this week, the first of four under the direction of Harry Rowe Shelley. Mr. Shelley played the electric organ, assisted by a trio of string instruments. The dances were in the library, one of the largest rooms in the Brookside residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Woodward, of Washington, have arrived at their country place, Edwin Hill, in Stockbridge; Miss Lillian Gram is in the Ludlow place, in Lenox; Mrs. George W. Bement and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Davis are at their estates in Stockbridge; Miss Helen O. Rand and George W. M. Sturgis are at their country places in Pittsfield.

Arriving at Curtis Hotel are Mrs. Alfred Macley, Miss Elizabeth A. Osgood, Miss Harriet Wells, Chandler Robbins, Mrs. James R. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Jessup, Mrs. Vanderbilt Cross, Admiral and Mrs. Upshur, Mrs. Frank H. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Adrien Herzog and Mr. and Mrs. De Witt Seligman.

George W. Elkins, of Elkins Park, Penn.; Frank Pearson, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cheney, of South Manchester, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cheney, of Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Samuel W. Bone, Mrs. C. A. Bone, Miss Agnes Hoppin, Mrs. A. G. Well-sportsmen in the summer colony will start for Canada for salmon fishing. Miss Symphorosa Bristed will receive entries for water sports events at Lake Mahkeene, Saturday, July 3, up to Thursday night, July 1. Miss Anita Delafeld, Miss Josephine Gersdorf, Miss Anna B. Alexander, Miss Grace Bristed, Miss Louise Hoadley and Miss Louise Kreech will take part in the canoe races.

Miss Emily Tuckerman will have charge of the Stockbridge flower show next month. It will be held in the Casino. Assisting will be Mrs. J. Woodward Haven, Mrs. William H. Walker, Miss Mary Weyman, Miss Isabel Chute, Miss Amy Kohlman, Miss Edith Kohlman and Mrs. Thomas S. Southworth.

The Lenox flower show will be held on July 27 and 28, with Mrs. Giraud Foster, Miss Adele Kneeland, Mrs. Posey, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. William E. S. Griswold, Elm Court Farm and High Lawn Farm as the leading exhibitors.

At the Stockbridge Country Club the committees and captains appointed are Philip Blagden, golf captain; Arthur Walker, tennis captain; Mrs. James R. Walker, Mrs. Carl de Gersdorf, Mrs. Thomas S. Southworth, Mrs. Margaret French and Miss Kate Hinton, entertainment committee; Mrs. Edwin T. Rice, Arthur Walker and Miss Josephine de Gersdorf, tennis committee; Brown Caldwell, Walter P. Eaton, Allen T. Broadway, Norman H. Davis, Philip Blagden, Victor Sorohan and Edward R. Owen, golf tournament committee.

Miss Anita Delafeld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Delafeld, made the best golf shot by a woman on the Lenox course this week, a net score of 122. Miss Delafeld has been playing one season, under instruction by Harry Hampton.

Miss Edith Burtis, of Brooklyn, the tennis champion of Heaton Hall, in Stockbridge, has arrived at the Hall and will defend her title in the coming tournament.

The Lenox Club has been booked to capacity for the Fourth of July. The club elections will take place Monday, July 5, at noon. Giraud Foster will be elected President of the Lenox Club and David de Gersdorf, Vice President. The annual meeting of the Lenox Library will be held, at which a president will be elected to succeed John E. Parsons.

DANCES AND PICNICS AT COOPERSTOWN

Cooperstown, N. Y., June 26.—The sojourners at the O-t-e-sa-ga and the summer colony have had a week of gaiety. There have been dinners, auction parties, dances and picnics.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. James Penimor Cooper gave a dinner at the O-t-e-sa-ga before the usual Wednesday evening dance. The guests included Mrs. Arthur Eyerson, Miss E. B. SALMON AND TROUT HUNGRY AT KINEO

Kineo, Moosehead Lake, Me., June 26.—The Mt. Kineo House opened to-day on its seventy-first anniversary as a resort. The day was made interesting by the presence of St. John's Commandery, Knights Templar, from Bangor. Drills and social functions furnished pleasure to the summer people already here.

Since May 15 many ardent fishermen have been in the numerous camps about Moosehead Lake, as well as at the annex to the Mt. Kineo. The catches of land-locked salmon and trout have been remarkable.

The Maine Sportsmen's Fish and Game Association holds its annual meeting here Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Costly prizes for their programme of land and water sports will give zest to the competition and the shooting matches and canoe races will afford pleasure to the assembled summer vacationists.

From all quarters of the lake—Northeast Carry, Greenleaf's, Spencer Narrows, Wilson's, Seebomook, Capen's, Lily Bay and West Outlet Camps—come assurances that this is to be a record-breaking season.

Summer residents are congregating here rapidly. Those from New York who are to be part of the summer colony at Mt. Kineo are Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. J. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Terwilliger, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Brandler, Mr. and Mrs. John Reilly, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Welch and child, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Kaul and family, Birmingham, Ala.; Dr. S. Mac Cuen Smith and family, Dr. L. P. Posey, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Rowland and Sons, Philadelphia; Mrs. George Quackenbush and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Zabrickie, Bell Haven, Greenwich, Conn.

Gala Polo Season Will Thrill Pier

Games at Point Judith to Begin Next Month and Continue to Mid-August—Early Assemblage of the Summer Colony.

(Special to The New York Tribune.) Narragansett Pier, R. I., June 26.—Narragansett will formally celebrate the opening of the season next week with the opening of the Casino, which will take place on Thursday, July 1. Many of the cottagers are already here for the summer, and the bathing pavilions and large hotels are now open for the season. Much interest is being taken in outdoor sports this summer, and members of the villa colony are already looking forward to a gala polo season, which will be inaugurated here in July, to continue until mid-August.

H. L. Herbert, chairman of the Polo Association, has recently announced the prizes to be awarded and the dates of closing for the various entries in the senior, open and junior championship events of the Point Judith tournament. The following cups will be offered as trophies in the Point Judith tournament: The army and navy cups, for high goal teams; the Rathbone memorial cups, presented by Mrs. J. C. Rathbone, of Louisiana, for low goal teams; the Atlantic cups, for high goal teams; the Randolph cups, presented by P. S. P. Randolph, of Philadelphia, for the first time at Narragansett, for low goal teams, and the Gladstone cups, with conditions to be announced later in the season.

J. C. Cooley, of New York, and Earl W. Hopping, who have been identified with polo for several seasons at the Pier, have been appointed associate managers of the Point Judith polo tournament. The tourney will open on July 19 and will continue until August 14. The date of closing for entries in the senior and open championship events is July 6, and the closing date for entries in the junior championship matches is July 10. It is anticipated that Meadow Brook, the Cooperstown and Great Neck teams will be included in the entries for the senior and open championship matches.

Members of the polo coterie from New York, Philadelphia and other large cities will be well represented at the Pier this season. Mrs. J. C. Rathbone, who presents the Rathbone Cups, has taken Drury's Dream cottage for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Stevenson, of New York, have returned here, and will occupy East Bonnie Bourne cottage this season. Mrs. Stevenson, who was formerly Miss Emily Randolph, is an expert poloist, and will doubtless participate in the game this summer. Among others who will return here for the polo season are Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Strawbridge, of Philadelphia. Mr. Strawbridge, who returned from England not long ago, is a member of the Bryn Mawr polo team, and will probably take part in the Point Judith tournament. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac H. Clothier, Jr., of Philadelphia, will probably arrive here soon for the season.

A number of improvements have been made to the golf course of the Point Judith Country Club this season. The tees have been widened and more traps and bunkers added. Among the golfers in the cottage colony are A. E. Thomas, of New York; Dr. Charles Hitchcock and Mr. and Mrs. S. Hinman Bird, of New York; John L. Welsh, of Philadelphia; W. Davis Miller, of Providence; Mrs. Rowland Hazard, of Peasdale, R. I., and William C. Marrow and Mrs. William Harding Jackson, of Washington.

Recent visitors to the Pier include Mrs. C. K. D. W. Gibson and Miss Josephine Gibson, of New York. They are en route for Charles Dana Gibson's summer place at Indian Landing, Acree Point, Dark Harbor, Me.

William E. Thompson, of Philadelphia, has arrived at his villa, Kirleia, for the season. Mr. and Mrs. John E. McGowan, of New York, are occupying a cottage at Little Compton, R. I.
